

It has been brought to the attention of the CGSC Board that some coaches have been running up the scores against weaker opponents, including stealing bases with big leads, keeping the first team in, etc. The Board hopes that these coaches will discontinue this action before they have to be called in to address the Board and face disciplinary action. (Remember: Coaches should teach Sportsmanship.)

COACHING RESPONSIBILITY AND CONDUCT

1. All Head Coaches and Adult Supervisor's Responsibilities
 - a. Refrain from alcoholic beverage prior to, during, and after games. This includes spectators. (As long as minors are present at the playing site)
 - b. Refrain from using profanity.
 - c. Refrain from running-up a score against a weak opponent. This includes keeping the first string in, stealing bases, etc. when the score has gotten out of control.
 - d. Abide by a doctor's decision in all matters of a player's health, injuries, and physical ability to play.
 - e. Accept decisions of officials on the field as being fair and called to the best of their ability. The coach must stay off the field and remain under control in order to set a good example for players and fans.
 1. A decision based on judgment should never be questioned. In cases of apparent misinterpretation, the officials must be addressed properly.
 2. If a coach or a player is EJECTED from a game, they will automatically be suspended from the next game, without appeal. This carries over into the playoffs or the following season. The coach must take the ASEP certification again at the next class held by the league. Team or teams are subject to a forfeit of the game for violating the suspension.
 - f. Together, with the game officials, to be jointly responsible for the conduct and control of your team fans and spectators. Any fan who becomes a nuisance and out of control must be asked to leave the field.
 - g. Do not criticize an opposing team, players, coaches, or fans by word of mouth or gesture.
 - h. Strive always to make every baseball activity serve as a training ground for life.
 - i. The head coach shall be responsible for the conduct involving himself, his staff, and his players, from the time they arrive to the time they depart.
 - j. Each head coach will be responsible to the C.G.S.C. for the conduct of the players and spectators from his parish. When he is the home team coach, he must see to it that the visiting team and umpires get safely on their way, leaving the premises unharmed and safe from harassment. .
 - k. If any of the above rules are violated the coaches and/or umpires may file a written letter of complaint to the league's Board of Directors.
 - l. If a coach is found guilty of violating one of these rules by the League Board of Directors, they can be expelled from the league for 12 months, placed on probation for a 12 month period, or suspended for a game, or games, which carries into playoffs or following season. If a coach should be found guilty of violating any league rule while on probation, they will be expelled from the league for 12 months.
